STARTS PRACTICE ON RIVER

Potomac Boat Club Rowers to Be Tried Out.

Foreign Governments to Send Crews for National Regatta, Held Here in August.

Different committees of the Potomac Boat Club are hard at work getting ready for the coming season on the river. The annual election of officers will take place at the meeting Wednesday night at the boat house. New officers will be elected all round. Capt. Joe Richardson has issued orders for all the members to be present this morning, when he will put them through the courses and pick out the best rowers for the coming regatta. "Pat" Dempsey will coach the crews this season, and says he expects to have some winning crews, as he has better material this year than ever before, and plenty of it.

The club will send representative crews to the American Henley, the People's regatta to be held at Philadelphia, and the Middle States regatta, wherever it is held. The Potomac club have a date with the Naval Academy to be held at Annapolis on May 7. The crews for this event will be selected some time this week. The race is to be a two-mile course with eight-oared teams.

expected that most of the foreign governments will respond to the invitation. Plans for the season's work have been adopted, and the following committees have been appointed:

John Hadley Doyle, chairman; H. G. Purcell, secretary; William S. Birney, Maj. Douglas Spencer Bliss, Arthur B. Benson, Frank G. Campbell, Oscar G. Claxton, William L. Crouse, Joseph T. Daly, Alfred B. Dent, Walter Deussen, George W. Evans, Joseph W. Freeman, E. Richard Gash, J. Eakin Keshbe, Thomas J. Gorman, George A. Herman, Irvin H. Hollander, Harry H. Berklei McCathran, John J. Nolan, Joseph H. Richardson, Robert D. Sandoloff, Harry S. Rohrer, Joseph W. Sprang, William E. Springer, Frank Russell Underwood, Charles G. Warden, president; Courtney P. Winter, Claude R. Zappone.

INDORSED BY CATHOLIC HEADS

Colonization Plan for Benefit of 500,000 Immigrants Yearly.

J. E. DeVos, a member of the executive committee of the National Catholic Colonization Society, who appeared last week before the archbishops in session at the Catholic University and won their approval, says the backing of the heads of the church will greatly aid the movement of establishing colonies of Catholic immigrants who heretofore have sought livelihoods in congested centers. He says it will be comparatively easy to induce a majority of the 500,000 Catholic immigrants who land annually in New York to join the different colonies in the Northwest planned by the railroads, where every good man is worth $1,000. The promoters of the plan say they have no interest in the sale of lands, but are working only for the welfare of the people.

Religious Differences His Theme.

Evangelist T. T. Martin delivered an address last night at the Fifth Baptist Church on "Why I became a Baptist minister instead of a Catholic priest." He endeavored to show the differences between the religions by quoting references or eminent authorities. Part of his address was devoted to an explanation of the baptismal ceremony of the Catholic faith as compared to the service in the Baptist church.

"APPOMATOX DAY" OBSERVED.

Daughters of Veterans' Camp Hear Story of Surrender.

"Appomattox Day" was celebrated by Daughters of Veterans, Camp No. 1, at their regular meeting last night. After singing of patriotic songs several short talks were given by the members in remembrance of the surrender of the Confederate army to Gen. Grant. Comrade William H. Anderson, of Wilson Post, No. 17, G. A. R., spoke of his service with "Bob" Lee for six years in the Union army before the war. He enlisted also in 1861 and served on the Union side in forty-three engagements, being at Appomattox during the surrender. Comrade Francis Nye, past vice commander of Wilson Post, spoke of the last stand of Gen. Johnson on the Confederate side before the surrender, and how Gen. Sherman finally surrounded his ragged army. Comrade Joseph I. Keefer read a paper on Gen. Grant and a paper about the old house of Wilmer McLean at Appomattox. The daughters following the request of Commander Johnson, of G. A. R., to appoint their committee for the services at Arlington on Decoration Day, listed a number of the members of the camp, whose names will be announced later.

New Office for Secretary MacVeagh.

Beginning to-morrow, persons seeking an audience with Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh must go to his new office at the southwest corner of the building, on the third floor. The Secretary desired the general plan and appearance of the office to be in line with the modern and up-to-date business methods in the department.

Sail Boat Capsize.

Passengers on the Norfolk boat were startled just before the sailing hour last evening by seeing a sail boat which had been tacking near the steamer dip and then capsize, throwing two boys into the water. The boys, C. E. Cross, of 486 F street southwest, and James Lanigan, of 590 G street, were rescued by John Cameron, of the Capital Yacht Club.

NEW COURTS FOR Y. M. C. A.

Swimmers Will Compete in Philadelphia Races April 30.

Annual Indoor Circus to Be Held on April 14 and 15 in the Central Branch Gymnasium.

The Y. M. C. A. Tennis Association is running a campaign for 100 new members, and the board of directors have agreed to pay two-thirds on the six new tennis courts that have been proposed if they are able to enroll the required number. At the present time they have more than forty new members, and hope to have the remainder by the last of April. If the new courts materialize, they will then hold tennis tournaments between teams of other cities. The courts were opened more than a week ago, but owing to the ground being in such a soft condition were obliged to close them up again, but with the good weather of the past week the ground dried out in first-class shape, and they were able to open them up again yesterday, to the great elation of the players.

In the near future a full schedule will be put in force at the swimming pool for the instruction of members who do not know how to swim. On April 29 a swimming team will go to Philadelphia to compete in the three-cornered race between Philadelphia and New York teams. As the local association has a very strong team, it expects to bring back all the honors. There will also be a delegation sent to Baltimore April 14 and 15, to take part in the S. A. A. swimming meet. The association up to the present date has not picked out the participants for either event.

The annual indoor circus will be held on April 14 and 15. The main performances will be given in the Central Branch gymnasium, with a score of freaks and wonders in the big side show in the board room on the first floor.

For many days the managers and artists have been busy perfecting arrangements and practicing the acts which will be presented to the large (we hope) and expectant audience on "circus nights," and everything is ready for the "biggest and best performance."

Many new and startling features have been added to this year's programme. The single stick drill, by "acknowledged leaders in lightning and dexterous movements," pyramids, forming "groups of palpitating and throbbing humanity," and a rapid-fire zouave drill, "bringing all the grace and ease of the far East" into exhibition, are some of the acts which will be presented for the first time on any stage.

Of course, the clowns will be there with "their merry war of funny, execrable droolery;" there will be Indian club juggling, "famous, lithe, sinuous, scintillating, and fascinating" hippodrome races, "dazzling, thundering, and terrific," "astonishing acts by clever dual bar artists" on parallel bars; marvelous executions on the flying rings, and all the other specialties and novelties that usually appear on the programme of a first-class show of the sawdust ring, with a good many that have never before been on any programme.

The boys and men's departments have combined in giving the circus this year, and the proceeds of the two performances will be divided between the two departments.

HERD OF ELEPHANTS STAMPEDE AT CIRCUS

Special to The Washington Herald.

Chicago, April 9.—Forty elephants stampeded and caused a panic among 5,000 circus spectators at the Coliseum last night, one of the trainers being seriously injured before the beasts were quieted down. Many women

DISPUTE OVER LAND BENEFITS

Suit Began to Prevent Orders of Assistant Secretary Pierce.

William D. Bales and Others Make Charges Against Secretary Ballinger—Reservation Claims.

Charging that Secretary of the Interior Ballinger refuses to give them benefits from land claims in the Siletz Indian reservation, and that his assistant, Frank Pierce, has decided adversely to them, William D. Bales, Thomas Holverson, and Levi M. Gilbert yesterday filed suits in the District Supreme Court for injunctions to prevent the execution of the orders of Assistant Secretary Pierce.

Bales says that in 1908 Ballinger filed in the office of the Secretary of the Interior a brief urging that patents be issued to him. Since Ballinger came into that office, Bales says that Pierce was given the Siletz reservation claims and decided against him.

Secretary Ballinger denies that he was attorney for the claimants at any time, and adds that Assistant Secretary Pierce disposed of the cases in accordance with the routine of the office. In regard to the brief presented in 1908, Mr. Ballinger says that his name was attached to it by a distant relative and was without his consent or authorization.

Students to Contest for Medal.

The Davis prize speaking will be held at the George Washington University Hall at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday. The committee of award consists of Prof. Henning, chairman, and Profs. Croissant and Peake. The prize, which is a handsome gold medal, is awarded at the commencement exercises in June.

While you think of it, telephone your Want Ad. to The Washington Herald, and bill will be sent you at 1 cent a word.
